An act to provide for printing and dis-tributing ballots at the public expense, and to regulate voting at territorial and other elections.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the territory or Montana.

Section 1. All ballots cast in elections for public officers within Montana (except school district officers) shall be printed and distributed at public expense as hereinafter provided. The printing of ballots and cards of instruction for the electors in each county, and the delivery of the same to the election officers, as hereinafter provided, shall be a county charge, the payment of which shall be provided for in the same manner as the payment of other county expenses, but the expense of printing and de-livering the ballots shall in the case of municipal elections be a charge upon the city or town in which such elections shall be held.

Sec. 2. Any convention or primary meeting, as hereinafter defined, held for the purpose of making nominations to pub-lic office, and also electors to the number ne office, and also electors to the future represented may nominate candidates for public office to be filled by election within the territory. A convention or primary meeting within the meaning of this act, is an organized assemblage of electors or delegates representing a political party or principle.
Sec. 3. All nominations made by such convention or primary meeting shall be certified as follows: The certificate of nomination, which shall be in writing, nomination, which shall be in writing, shall contain the name of each person nominated, his residence, his business, his business address, and the office for which he is named, and shall designate in not more than five words the party or principle which such convention or primary meeting represents, and it shall be signed by the presiding officer and secretary of such convention or primary meeting who shall add their signatures, their respective places of residence, their business and business adnatures, their respective places of resi-dence, their business and business ad-dresses. Such certificates made out as herein required shall be delivered by the secretary or president of such convention or primary meeting, to the secretary of the territory or to the county clerk as hereinafter required.

Sec. 4. Certificates of nomination of candidates for offices to be filled by the electors of the entire territory, or of any division greater than a county, shall be filed with the secretary of the territory. Certificates of nomination for county and precinct officers shall be filed with the clerks of the respective counties wherein the officers are to be elected. Certificates of nomination for municipal officers shall be filed with the clerk of the munical corporations wherein the officers are to be elected. The certificate of a nomination for joint member of either branch of the legislative assembly shall be filed in the offices of the county clerks of both counties to be represented by such joint member.

Sec. 5. Candidates for public office may be nominated otherwise than by convention or primary meeting in the manner following: A certificate of nomination containing the name of a candidate for the office to be filled, with such information as is taining the name of a candidate for the office to be filled, with such information as is required to be given in certificates provided for in section 3 of this act, shall be signed by electors residing within the district or political division in and for which the officer or officers are to be elected in the following numbers: The number of signatures need not exceed one hundred when the nomination is for an office to be filled by the electors of the entire territory, and need not exceed ten when the election a county, district or other division less than a county, district or other division less than the territory, and need not exceed five when the nomination is for an office to be filled by the electors of a township, precinct or ward; provided, that the said signatures need not all be appended to one paper. Each elector signing a certificate shall add to his signature his place of residence, his business and business address. Such certificate may be filed as provided for in secion four of this act in the same manner and with the same effect as a certificate of nomination made by a party convention or primary meeting.
